FELLOWS DENOUNCED, TOO.

THE DISTRICT-ATTORNEY'S OFFICE AND THE LANGERMAN CASE.

IT COMES IN FOR A SHARE OF PUBLIC CONDEMNA

The amazing and startling developments in the earnest and excited discussion all through the The general sentiment of New-Yorkers. red from the comments made in all parts town, was that Recorder Goff had seriously pjured himself in the opinion of the community by traordinary proceedings. Among those who ad shown unjustifiable bias and prejuwidespread. The criticism was freely exvery way endeavored to weaken the case defendant throughout the trial. It was bserved and commented upon his peculiar course trial went on. Everybody who made himself that the case of the plaintiff was extremely her evidence was of the most improbable the matter say frankly that no just and fair judge have attached so much weight to the absurd and grotesque evidence which Miss Aub gave trial as the Recorder did. onishing utterances of the Recorder on when he denounced Langerman in most ferocious language at his command, before taking public the fact that Miss Aub had confessed had committed perjury, was consured in the city that the Recorder has lowered his dig nity and provoked general distrust and alarm by conduct in using such violent language toward prisoner when he knew that Langerman was of the crime charged against him. lay who had a word of excuse or apology for the surprising and bewildering course adopted by the in using such vehement language to the risoner, who he knew was guiltless of the particular charge made against him

NO ONE DEFENDS LANGERMAN.

It is true that every one despises Langerman most and that no one has a good word for him His career has been abominable and detestable, and conted upon not only with dislike but with contempt. But New-Yorkers can discover fication for the extraordinary action of the Recorder in heaping abuse upon a prisoner who was wholly in his power and who could not answer disprove his accusations.

New-Yorkers whom Tribune reporters have talked ith since the disclosures in the Aub case are a nit in saying that the jurors who found Langerid trustworthy witnesses was such as to leave no box, and the people of this city as a rul scussing this whole subject say freely that actions and utterances of the Recorder seless stupidity of this jury have done more system than anything which has occurred to of wisdom, intelligence, sagacity and comevidently due to her prompting and prodding and unremitting urgency that Miss Aub was prevailed year to year, according to the requirements upon to bring the charge against Langerman. Many commended by Recorder Goff from the bench, and who made such tremendous efforts to gather untrustworthy testimony in the effort to send Langerman to State Prison for twenty years, should be dismissed from the force. Many New-Yorkers say that he is wholly unfit for a position on the police

DISTRICT-ATTORNEY'S OFFICE CRITICISED. Criticism and censure and fault-finding with the District-Attorney's office, as it is mismanaged by John R. Fellows, are also pientiful and emphatic from the Battery to Yonkers, and from the East District-Attorney's office, as it is mismanaged by John R. Fellows, are also pientiful and emphatic from the Battery to Yonkers, and from the East River to the Hudson. No one ventures to dispute the obvious fact that Colonel Robert Townsend, the Assistant District-Attorney who conducted the prosecution, has too small a mind and too meagre and scanty an intellect to take charge of a prosecuion in any such case. He is too simple, too credulous, too foolish, too obtuse. No person of average lous, too foolish, too obtuse. No person of average intellect, many New-Yorkers say, would have been so easily fooled, duped and dehided by Miss Aub's preposterous story as Colonel Townsend was. Every one in New-York knows how the District-Attorney's office has been mismanaged by John R. Fellows, and that many of his assistants are incompetent and unworthy of the positions which they hold, it is a matter of common knowledge that several of these assistants were appointed simply on account of political considerations, and have not the brains, the experience or the sagacity necessary for public prosecutors.

the experience or the sagacity necessary for public prosecutors.

The complete collapse of Colonel Townsend's efforts to send an innocent man to State prison for a long term of years has put Colonel Townsend in a ridiculous Eight before the New-York public. If the District-Autorney's office had been properly managed, Miss Aub's story would have been sifted, investigated and so thoroughly examined that this outrageous effort to send an innocent man to State prison for twenty years would never have come into court at al. The decent people in New-York excress the opinion that there can be no more starting proof of the incountency of some of Colonel Fellows's assistants and of the general mismaniagement and maladministration of the bistrict-Attorney's office than the prosecution of this outrage-sis Aub case. They say that while Langerman is a blot on the city, a bestial rascal in his relations with women, and a foul nuisance generally it was plain and clear from Miss Aub's own story that he was not gollily of the hideous and appailing crime charged against him, and that no intelligently managed District-Attorney's office would ever have taken up the prosecution on so flimsy evidence as that which was conjected by Miss Aub, when her friend, Miss Smedley, was constantly pushing her on, instigating her, and urging her to go to the police and to send Langerman to the State prison for a long term. New-Yorkers say it is not only THE JURORS WHO CONVICTED LANGERMAN.

The jurors who found Langerman guilty on the estimony of Barbara Aub are Thomas A. Fulton, in drygoods at No. 83 Walker-st.; Walter H. Morrill, a clerk, of No. 2,023 Seventh-ave.; William Carson, a public accountant, of No. 16 Exchange Place; George W. Rogers, a clerk, of No. 461 West Thirty-fourth-st.; William Cameron, a carpenter, of No. 218 East Fifty-first-st.; Francis A. Goeliz, a jeweller, of No. 377 Third-ave.; Gilbert G. Wood, a hardware merchant, of No. 84 Greenwich-ave.; George E. Graef, a clerk, of No. 286 Lenox-ave.; John A. idik, a dealer in produce, of No. 125 Christopher-light, a dealer in produce, of No. 126 Christopher-light, a dealer in produce, of No. 126 Christopher-light, a dealer in produce, of No. 126 Christopher-light, and Eephy-fifth-st. Clarence F. Vanderbillt, a clerk, of No. 255 Eighth-ave.; John Alkinson, patents of No. 256 Eighth-ave.; John Alkinson, patents of No. 256 Eighth-ave.; John Alkinson, patents of Saits, at No. 99 Greene-st., and living at No. 124 East Eighty-fifth-st.

The Princess Viroqua and Miss Smedley called at Police Headquarters yesterday afternoon and were closeted with Police Commissioner Parker for a long time. It was said that their visit was made in behalf of Policeman Emanuel Meyer, who was so officious in gathering the alleged evidence against Langerman. The Princess was anxious to have Meyer commended for the work he had done, and Commissioner Parker promised to bring the matter to the attention of the other Commissioners. ill, a clerk, of No. 2,023 Seventh-ave.; William Car-

The Princess and Miss Smedley also called at the office of the District-Attorney in the hope of securing permission to visit Barbara Aub in the Tombs. Their efforts proved unavailing. They say that they have a legal right to see their friend, and that they will take some definite action to secure admission to the Tombs to-day.

Miss Smedley denies the truth of certain parts cure admission to the Tombs to-day.

Miss Smedley denies the truth of certain parts of Barbara's confession, and says that the prisoner at no time expressed a willingness to withdraw the complaint against Langerman.

Langerman has not yet secured ball.

BEER TO COST MORE IN THE WEST.

PROBABLE CAUSE OF THE ADVANCE-NO PROS PECT OF INCREASED PRICES IN THIS CITY. Discussions on the President's message, the Eastcomplications, the financial situation, the weather and what Tamsen knows about personal liberty were cut short in some circles yesterday by the report from Chicago that the price of beer was to go up. The report was to the effect that Mil-waukee and Chicago brewers had entered into a pool, and that the price of beer would be raised to prospects of the glasses becoming smaller.

Edward C. Schaefer, of the F. & M. Schaefer Brewing Company, who was seen at his home, No 529 Madison-ave., declared that the advance in the price at Chicago was simply an effort on the part of the brewers to get a living price for their product he said that the beer war in Chicago had reduced both the price and the quality of the beer there, and that the advance in price might possibly be a sign that the war was coming to an end. As to beer here, he said that the brewers were well satisfied with the present prices, 88 a barrel, less the dis-count, and he thought there would be no advance be this city.

APPOINTMENT OF SCHOOL TRUSTEES. VARM ARGUMENT OVER LOUIS J. HORNTHALL AND DR. JOSEPH H. PYENE, BOTH OF WHOM ARE REAPPOINTED BY THE BOARD

OF EDUCATION. The principal controversy in yesterday's meeting of the Board of Education occurred just before ad-journment, when the report of the Committee of the Whole appointing School Trustees for the full term of five years was presented for action

Commissioner Hubbell started the argument when, after he had moved the adoption of the committee's report in so far as the first eighteen wards were oncerned, and his motion had been adopted. suggested the substitution in the Nineteenth Ward the name of Marie E. Houston as trustee in p.acof that of Louis J. Hornthall. Then there was a merry time discussing Mr. Hornthall's qualifications and official history. He was finally reappointed by a vote of 13 to 6. The pext breeze occurred when Commissioner Hubbell moved to substitute William B. Putney in place of Dr. Joseph H. Byrne, trustee in the Twenty-Commissioner Hunt made an objection immediately. In a long speech he said, among other things, that in his opinion Dr. Byrne was not fit for the place, nithough personally he had the highest respect for him. He said that Trustee Byrne had given undignified exhibitions of temper and allowed his personal prejudices to contro. his Commissioner Van Arsdule and others spoke in favor of Trustee Byrne, and he was reappointed.

The rest of the report of the committee of the whole was then adopted. This is the full list of the new Trustees, many of them being reappoint-
